Cartannuay.—There was a great rush of the lovers of fur has inght to see the performance of the splendid new dompshy engaged by the energetic management of this beautiful and popular temple of susic. In addition to the other talent named in the programme the audience were agreeably surprised at the opportunity of witnessing on the stage that unrivalled Sthlopian performer, J. H. Budworth, whose fame is world-wide, and whese services the proprietors have secured, after great trouble and at considerable expense. Denny Gallagher proved himself an artist of superior talent and made quite a hit hast night. The beautiful filled Collean was received with the most chuluslastic applause. She dances superbly, Miss Sarah Duval sang as sweetly as ever; in fact the whole company solipses anything yet to-night for the second time, and another crowd will, of course, attend.

Mr. Raub also submitted a bill for relaying a gutter on 8 street north. Referred.

Mr. Raub also offered a resolution to prohibit the use of the Council Chamber for any other object except the meetings of the Common Council. At the solicitation of several-members, Mr. R. withdrew the resolution for the present, after explaining the reason for offering it, which was that the lock of his drawer had been repeatedly broken open and important papers abstracted.

Mr. Shepherd then submitted the following:

Whereas the President of the United States has called for 300,000 additional troops to aid in putting down the rebellion, and whereas the corporation, sensible of the vital importance of immediately placing this city's quots in the field, and desirous of enabling the volunteers from this city to provide, in some smeasure, for the wants of themselves and families, so as to promote enlistments: Therefore—

Be it canaded, That the sum of fifty thousand dollars, ($50,000,) or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of the general fund, to be used as bounties for volunteers who may be volunteered into service in this city, to be disbursed under the direction of the committee herein after provided for.

And be if further enacted, That immediately appoint one member from each Board of Councils, and two citizens not mombers thereof, who, with the said Mayur, shall constitute a committee of five, to be called "The Committee to Encourage Volunteer Enlistments," and who shall diabures the money herein appropriated in bounties to volunteers, under such regulations as they may preserbe; and said committee are hereby empowered to solicit voluntary subscriptions from the citizens, to be appropriated to the same end, in order that the quots of troops to be furnished by the city may be promptly filled.

And be if further enacted, That the Mayor be, and he is hereby, authorized to anticipate the revenues of the present facal year, by temperary loans or old, to be applied to the purposes herein provided for.

Mr. Shepherd said that he supposed there was not a member here who would not vote for this proposition. Our city is the very centre of military operations. We have been protected in a peculiar manner in the midst of this rebellion, and our city should not be inactive in efforts to fill up the ranks of our depleted army. If we rely on individual contributions for this object, the loyal will be heavily taxed, while those who have no sympathy with the Government in its present struggles (though that Government has always protected them in property and life) will not be required to contribute. By the system proposed here all will be required to contribute for this noble object. Mr. Lioyd said he was decidedly in favor of this proposition. We ought to manifest our loyalty and devotion to the Government by passing this measure. He trusted that it would pass.

Mr. Bhapherd called for the yeas and nays.

Alds to Locomotion

A new combines line is much needed for the promotion of the public convenience, to run from the Capitol, by the railroad depot, upon flew Jersey, Massachusetts, and New York avenues, passing the North Market, to the State or War Department. This is now a much-traveled route, of considerable extent, and with the great impetus to city locomotion about to be given by the sail cars, this route, if supplied with a regular combine line, would doubtless soon prove more than remunerative, and bring into use a portion of the stock to be relieved by the rail cars.
